THAW NERVOUS WHEN CALLED INCURABLY INSANE BY ALIENIST.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WHITE PLAINS (N. Y.) Aug. 2.—Three alienists united in the Supreme Court today to make it unpleasant for Harry K. Thaw, who had shown "bad judgment," to be released from the Matteawan asylum as a mentally normal man.

All three testified that Thaw was insane, and that Thaw took the stand briefly, after some disconcerting testimony, he was plainly ruffled and nervous, but Mr. Jerome dismissed him after a few comparatively unimportant questions.

Of the alienists who testified, Dr. Flint, Dr. William Hirsch and Dr. Amos T. Baker, the last-named gave testimony of the most importance. He is acting superintendent of Matteawan.

Justice Mills took a hand in questioning him. Dr. Baker said that in his opinion Thaw was insane now and a dangerous person to be at large.

APARENTLY SHAKEN. It was shortly after this declaration that Mr. Jerome quickly called Thaw to the stand. He was pale and apparently shaken. The District Attorney put some rather incoherent notes written by him in evidence, and asked him to explain them. After parries back and forth and laborious explanations by Thaw as to the meaning of certain writings, he said:

"I want you to know, Mr. Jerome, that many of these notes you call suggestions were written at the request of my lawyers."

"Do you mean to sit there and tell us, who observed you in both homes, that you were sane?" asked Justice Mills.

Dr. Amos T. Baker described a paranoiac as a person dominated by certain delusions, whose mental and physical state might not otherwise be affected, except in so far as these delusions influence him.

"NEVER RECOVER." "Paranoiac," he concluded impressively, "never recovers. He is a person who, once he has been so diagnosed, never recovers."

Mr. Hirsch varied the general verdict by declaring Thaw "a degenerate paranoiac."

Charles Morchauer, Thaw's attorney, attacked this testimony with every legal expedient. In Mr. Flint's case, he endeavored to show that he had given contradictory testimony in two previous cases where he appeared as an expert.

He caused Dr. Hirsch some unhappy moments by inquiring about a book he was writing. "Do you, in this book," he asked, "claim that Jesus Christ was a paranoiac?"

The alienist's reply was that he would not like to give any opinion on the subject.

The alienist delivered his opinion in answer to Jerome's hypothetical question, only a small part of which was relevant to the case.

Mr. Morchauer will continue to follow his cross-examination of Dr. Hirsch.

JUSTICE TAKES HAND. Justice Mills, from Dr. Amos T. Baker, acting superintendent of Matteawan asylum, obtained the clearest statement yet expressed regarding Thaw's mental condition.

The witness declared that he believed that the prisoner was now insane, and that his release would be a menace to public safety.

Justice Mills began with the observation that he considered Dr. Baker an extremely important witness, free from all bias.

"We have had a limited examination from which we considered the man insane," he said.

"Do you consider that limited examination sufficient to reach a full, firm conclusion as to his condition?"

"No, sir," Justice Mills replied.

"Suppose you had this man Thaw with no previous history of the case, what would have been your position?"

Justice Mills replied that the man is insane, replied the witness.

"That's enough," said Judge Mills. Mr. Jerome then recalled Thaw.

NAVY READY TO BURN OIL.

Department Will Soon Buy California Product.

Liquid Fuel to Be Stored at Coaling Stations.

Plans for Converting Barges to Carry Supply.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] California oil companies probably find, very soon, a profitable, some time captious customer, in the Navy Department. It has taken time, but the navy has come to the conclusion that it will make use of oil for making steam.

Tentative plans have been prepared by the Bureau of Navigation for the conversion of fuel oil depots, and plans will be sent to the general board of the navy today or tomorrow for review and approval, or change for revision. It is proposed, in a general way, to have liquid fuel stored wherever there is a coaling station. This would result in establishing such liquid fuel depots at San Francisco, San Pedro, San Diego, Honolulu, Guam, and probably at other points.

Eventually there will be oil ships, as there are now, coaling ships. It is intended to ask Congress to build ships to carry liquid fuel. These ships, of course, would obtain their supply in the shore stations, to be established. While these plans are all tentative and subject to the changing of the general board, the general policy of having oil stations and ships will be subject to the approval of the general board.

BEER DODGING TAXES. SHINKAGE CLAIMED. [ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH.] WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The government has been "short" either intentionally or unintentionally, in the matter of duties on imported beer. BOARD STANDS ON ITS RIGHTS.
Little Consideration Shown Advisory Body.

Committee's Request Denied by the Supervisors.

Joint Session Results Only in Widening Breach.

The breach between the Board of Supervisors and the Advisory Committee was widened, instead of narrowed, at yesterday morning's joint session. Speaking for the committee, Chairman A. A. Butler demanded that the names of Martin Marsh and J. W. Calvert be submitted to the committee for approval or rejection. This, the supervisors refused to do, on the ground that it would place the board in a ridiculous position to refer the matter to an outside body which had no power to rescind the appointments. The Advisory Committee then insisted that Marsh and Calvert resign and take their chance of being approved by the committee. Marsh refused to do so, and Calvert stated he would like to consult with the Supervisors before taking so drastic a step. After the members of the Advisory Committee left the Supervisors' office, George H. Eddy, Highway Commissioner had expressed, was disappointed upon the motion of Supervisor Eddridge.

The letter of Dist. Atty. Frederick, which he advised the board of generate with the Advisory Committee, failed to be approved, upon the advice of Supervisors Eddridge, McCabe and Nellis. After listening for two hours to the rebukes of various members of the Advisory Committee, the three officials apparently felt in no mood to approve the suggestion of the District Attorney.

RESOLVE TO DISCIPLINE.
 When the members of the Good Roads Advisory Committee filed into the supervisors' office at 10 o'clock, the majority indicated a high resolve to discipline the recalcitrant members of the Board of Supervisors. There was an air which plainly said: "We have made a plan endeavor to bring you over, but you cannot be brought to see the light, we wash your hands of you and your works."

James Glasgow, representing the Board of Supervisors, and A. P. Pierson, secretary of the Harbor Commission and Consolidation Committee, showed a sincere intention to maintain harmony, even at the cost of compromise; but the other members apparently had come prepared to fight the supervisors until the "naughty" boys were secured, and the "naughty" supervisors refused to "be good."

Under the membership of the Advisory Committee mentioned, others present included: P. J. Beveridge of Hollywood, T. J. Walker of San Fernando, O. Knott of this city and E. C. Redwood of Pomona. Chairman Butler stated it was impossible to get the board together on such short notice. Supervisor Nellis, chairman of the board, stated briefly that the members of the Advisory Committee had been requested to be present to take up the matter of the reappointment of George Eddy to Highway Commissioner. He then listened to the reading of the District Attorney's letter relative to joint meetings of the two bodies. A letter from Butler, in which he stated that the committee refused to act upon the suggestion of Eddy unless it could also pass upon the question of the two joint appointments at the same time, was also read.

BUTLER'S STATEMENT.
 "I've done no more considerable in notifying us of these meetings," said Butler. "It was impossible to get our full committee together on so short a notice. We have an intention to personally attack the men recently appointed on the Highway Commission, and the manner of appointment."

The matter of the appointments of Marsh and Calvert was then gone into. Though it was admitted that four members of the Advisory Committee met with the Supervisors at the time of the question of selecting a successor to Chairman Daggett, of the Highway Commission, Butler maintained that the committee had not really passed upon the appointments.

It also developed that the majority of the committee members were strong opponents to the reappointment of Daggett.

Supervisor McCabe gave a brief account of meeting and laid stress upon the fact that the Advisory Committee was apparently opposed to Daggett, and as far as could be learned, was individually favorable to both Marsh and Calvert.

DELICATE MATTER.
 "It was a delicate matter to out-voice," he had worked hard and withfully for good roads," said the supervisor. "We know you gentlemen didn't want Daggett, so we pulled the chair out from under him. I am the chair, but I am a lot of you, printed in papers which are read by the people. I am willing to state the views of your committee. I want you to understand that my first duty is to the people. I am never doing anything for which I am ashamed and I am willing to keep my record."

McCabe stated that it seemed a matter of keeping bidders waiting to see if they were accepted while the Highway Commission delayed matters of technical reasons.

"I am for harmony," declared Pierson, "and I would like to see the good campaign going right along. I am assisting for good roads for the people and would like to see this campaign carried on as soon as possible. What the taxpayers want is a good road system. They are not interested in the board of supervisors. If the board of supervisors is to be of any use, they must be able to get on with the people."

RESIGNING PURPOSE.
 Supervisor Eddridge said that it was his intention to place the name of his committee on the reappointment, but he was willing to have the board decide whether it was to be given free consideration. He said, however, that the committee would not set on the proposed resignation of the other two members of the committee. He said that the committee would not set on the proposed resignation of the other two members of the committee. He said that the committee would not set on the proposed resignation of the other two members of the committee.

CAPT. PRIES URGES IT.

Capt. Pries was introduced amid burst of applause.

"I have consented to talk to you tonight not because I have any doubt that consolidation will carry, but because I want to see it carry by landslide."

"As I told you on July 24, I expect to see Wilmington vote four to one in favor of consolidation. It is six, eight or ten to one so much better. Show the world that you are not afraid of change, faith in your own and faith in yourselves. Every man who has faith in himself has faith in Los Angeles, not only that she will spend the millions dollars she is to spend according to the consolidation report, but many millions more."

"Oh, I have no patience with men who say you can't trust Los Angeles. Such men are not worthy of trust. They think other men crooked has a yell streak in himself somewhere. I've seen them in the streets. They have not only never failed me, but I have never come near it."

You can depend upon my majority to do what is right, if you are able to show them what is right. The only fear you need have is that some of our politicians may be misled by false statements and worthless promises. And that is just what I am going to do. I am going to saying they will do this and that won't do that. What they are after is to get the railroad. There is nothing you than they ought to make. The want no improvements they cannot control, and public harbor improvement. The Wilmington people are connected with Los Angeles will be hard to control than public harbor improvement."

"If the corporations had a choice they could let either San Pedro or Wilmington consolidate and defeat consolidation in the other city, they would let San Pedro consolidate and defeat Wilmington."

The approach to Wilmington's waterfront for two miles is perfect, as along streets none of which are controlled by the railroads. These cars are not new to me or to you.

Lack of storage room is the greatest reason why the harbor is not developed. Water will not be built until the inner harbor is fully developed and there is need of more room for ships is urgent. It will cost $100,000 to build electric tracks with two or four tracks, and it will cost $100,000 to build electric tracks with two or four tracks. That day, however, is a generative force.

"Who will improve your streets—the railroads, the Hannings, or the Consolidation Committee? The Consolidation Committee will give the wealth to the poor, and you can guess when the street is improved."

a complaint against her husband, alleging extreme cruelty, and he prepared to contest the case. Pending trial Dr. Griffith was haled into court and by order of Judge James was directed to pay Mrs. Griffith $75 a month, which he proceeded to do, until last May, when he made discoveries involving the honor of the wife that put an entirely new phase on the litigation. He at once filed a cross-complaint alleging adultery, and it was on this that the hearing was held yesterday.

Dr. Grith told the story of how he had found Tom Post, a business man, at the Griffith home on West Sixth street, but he had not gone far in the story when he was unable to proceed on account of his deep emotion. Then his attorney, T. E. de la Martiniere, intervened and called to his aid the fact that he had seen the Griffith home when he had been asked by the plaintiff to accompany him to that place for the purpose of securing incriminating evidence against his wife. The evidence was conclusive and the court granted the decree. The case was un-

SHE FOOLED "HUBBY."

"I was a young boy from the country and she imposed upon me. She abused me because I bowed to some of the young folks belonging to our church, and to reform her I induced her to join the church and be baptized, but it did no good. She often threatened me and I was examined by the Church of Jesus Christ on Wall Street but that did not reform her. She lied to me about her age, saying she was but 36 years old, when

"Afterward took up with men named Ingle and Land, but I was the first victim," he said, "and they were followed by two others, Hart and Sinclair. Oh, I was a rouser in those happy days in Frisco, my pay was about $300 a month, and I was a 'big shot' on the 'plat,'" testified Cherry. The witness hobbled on the stand with a cane, and one of his ears was wrapped with some sort of padding. Parks was granted his

HALF OUNCE OF GOLD.
ALL STOCKHOLDERS FOUND.

The hearing of the case brought against R. R. Christie et al of Long Beach, to recover $7000 alleged to have been invested in capital stock of the National Gold Dredging Company, is on in Judge Hervey's court. The evidence heard yesterday was report of Directors Fisher, Smith and Christie, made to the shareholders, that the gold was being found in the American River country, where the gold was being shoveled out great quantities, according to the allegations of the complaint made by Eph Mayhew Sewall, plaintiff in the case. The report says:

"We found a great storm raging, the clouds wrecked, badly broken up and carried away down the river, with little hope of any salvage worth recovering. THREE ESTATES.
LEFT RELATIVES.

A petition was filed yesterday for probate of the will of Dominga Ramirez, who died leaving an estate valued at $5500. One-half of the proceeds to the wife, Esperanza Ramirez.

The other half to Dominga Batz, son, and Josie Batz, Tomasita Batz, Beatrice Batz, daughters.

John W. Lee, the adopted son of Francis Miller, is chief beneficiary under the will after the testator. After settling all of the debts of the testator, the balance of the estate if the value reaches $5000 is given to the adopted son, and if it exceeds that amount $1000 it to be given to Harry W. Lee, daughter of Lee. The residue is valued at $7125.

The settlement was filed by letters of administration of the estate of Bartons, who died July 26, leaving an estate valued at $21,940. The heirs are Alice Gibbons, the widow, and

For Children's Wear

Articles for little folks at prices which will please those who have the bills to pay, and styles pleasing to those who wear them:

Sunbonnets 35c Each

Boys' and girls' sunbonnets and sun hats; polo and Shaker styles; all sizes; on special sale for today at 35c.

Girls' Glimps $1.00

Made almost like a shirtwaist, and very handy for summer dresses; tucked front and back; for girls of 2 to 14; very good value at each $1.00.

A Sale of Appliques

Making up summer dresses or, perhaps, fall frocks of wool or silk? Then you'll be doubly glad to get stylish trimmings at much less than you'd expect to have to pay:

We're clearing out all odd lines and short lengths of appliques, in all colors, also black and white; and all short lengths of nets in colors. There are too many prices to go into detail upon, but you'll find reductions very radical; and the goods reasonable and stylish in every way—also they wouldn't be sold down to short lengths.

Graceful Draperies

For City or Summer Homes

Women who perhaps do not know just what is newest in styles of draperies or curtains for new houses will be glad to learn of our so-called "Suggestion Gallery"—in which we arrange various drapery effects of all sorts in effective, novel fashions—and where we will gladly show you how your own home may be arranged in like or different good fashion:

Today the display is wholly of styles suitable for draperies or for kimonos and house gowns. We shall display fully seventy-five different patterns of plain and fancy silks, representing a price-range from 50c to $1.25 a yd. On the 3rd floor may also be seen handsome Swile curtains—36 to 40 inches wide; 2½ yds. long, plain, with corded edge, Tambourine, and in dainty colors, for bed rooms; ruffled edge or lace edge; hemstitched, braiding. Cluny in hand-embroidered insertions and edgings. These curtains range all the way from $1 to $2.50 a pair. We're very proud of our hammock selections this year. Over sixty different patterns are shown, all from the best-known makers, with stretch at each end; valances at each side; stationary and throw-back pillows; plain white, fancy and Navajo patterns in all colorings; prices $2 to $7.00.

Pongee Day

In The Silk Section

No reason in the world for so reducing such popular silks except the general desire for clearance that always comes previous to stock-taking:

- 27-inch Ottoman Shantung pongee; our regular $1.25 grade, in a good line of colors, on sale at.....$1.00
- 27-in. Coptic Tussah pongee; in colors; $1.25 grade $1.00
- 27-in. Harringtons pongee; in colors; $1.25 grade $1.00
- 24-in. Jamis pongee; colors; $1.25 grade at.....$1.00

Will You Pay $17.50

For A $30.00 Silk Dress?

Interest doesn't seem to abate at all in this sale of high-grade silk dresses—also wool frocks—at seventeen dollars and a half. Women realize at a glance the unusual values obtainable:

For not a few of the garments concerned were good sellers, only a little earlier in the season—at $20.00, and even higher; none of them brought less than $18.50, and the majority are of the higher-priced varieties; you may choose from light pink, light yellow, light blue, light gray, darker rose shades, Copenhagen and navy blue, darker gray, black, lavender, in the plain colors; in fancy silks, from foulards, checks, stripes, and from pongees in the natural and dyed shades. Some skirts are plaited in pretty styles; others are plainer; waists are trimmed with nets, etc., in harmonizing colors; some of the wool garments are in jumper style, others in princess effect; not one that isn't a real bargain at $17.50.

EDUCATIONAL SHEET

The Times will issue on August 11 a special, illustrated sheet, descriptive of private and public schools and other educational institutions of Southern California.

The sheet will be absolutely authentic, of wide scope and embrace the unexcelled advantages offered for educating the youth of this section. There are as fine schools and colleges, public, private and business, located in and adjacent to Los Angeles, as can be found anywhere in the United States.

The issuance of this publication is primarily for the exploitation of these high-class institutions of learning which afford scholars as great opportunities for enlightenment as those offered by even the best universities abroad.

In this special issue the advantages of the institutions represented in The Times' scholarship contest will be duly set forth for the guidance of the contestants in choosing their prizes, as well as for the enlightenment of other students who have not yet decided what schools to attend the coming year.

What a Milk Feeding Station is

The largest poultry markets in New York, Chicago and other eastern cities have adopted a method of caring for poultry that produces a marvelous improvement in the texture, flavor and eating quality. Upon receipt of the chickens they are placed in separate compartments, where they remain quiet and are made contented by frequent feedings of the richest mixture of grain, with fresh buttermilk or sweet milk, plenty of green grass and fresh running water and absolutely sanitary quarters.

Three to six weeks of such care produces rich, juicy, delicately flavored meat, vastly superior to anything you ever ate. The fat is evenly distributed and not in bunches, as often found in the corn fed barnyard fowl.

Milk fed chickens are in popular demand by all who have ever eaten them.

Young's Market Co. have recently installed this system and have the only milk feeding station on this Coast. They cost no more but are sold at market prices.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BUILDING, WHICH IS TO BE ERIGED ON THE recently purchased site at the northeast corner of Fourth and E streets. No selection will be made until later, the president having decided to call a special meeting for the purpose. The building is to cost about $20,000.

EARL F. ANNE, a local mining man, has made a rich strike sixty-three miles east of Victorville. He has uncovered a body of iron ore, which runs into a fabulous sum, it is said. He returned to the property, this morning, to sink a well. Water indications are good, and he expects to strike a flow of thirty feet.

BOARD BOWARDED.

The supervisors, today, voted to purchase the property at Tenth and B streets for a detention home. It comprises a two-story house, a large lot. The consideration is $300. All the morning, the board was bombarded with objections by a large delegation from the neighborhood.

EDGAR RICE, who was shot at Needle last Friday, while attempting to escape from jail, is thought to be dying at the County Hospital. His condition took a change for the worse, this forenoon. He lapsed into unconsciousness, and is delirious.

KEEP OUT OF SQUABBLE.

Trustees of Colton Decide to Take No Action on Report Concerning Cement Dust.

COLTON, Aug. 1.—At the meeting of the Trustees last night, the majority report of the committee on the cement dust nuisance was read and discussed. The minority report, which was verbal, was adverse to the city entering the controversy, believing the problem one to be settled between the orange growers and the cement company.

No action was taken on the question, however, as the majority of the board does not believe the city able to furnish funds sufficient to contest the case successfully.

The majority report reads:

"Your committee appointed to consider the grounds of complaint presented by certain orange growers and others, respectfully report that it has examined the conditions upon which the complaints were based, and also interviewed the general manager of the cement works. In company with him it viewed the works, and have also obtained such information as could be had as to the means adopted, or proposed to be adopted, with a view of preventing or lessening the escape of dust from the works of the cement plant. From this examination your committee reports the following conclusions:

"The quantity and character of the dust escaping from the works, when in operation, are such as to cause great damage to orchards and growing crops generally in the vicinity of the works, and a considerable distance therefrom. The dust also causes great depreciation in the value of property, interferes greatly with the comfortable enjoyment, and threatens the health of people residing in that locality. It is also our opinion that the measures now taken to control the escape of the dust are in no way effective for that purpose.

"An ordinance was passed allowing for the shutting year.

"The property was shown to be $100,000 above that of last year.

"Miss Agnes E. Dempster and Milton T. Upton were married in San Francisco today. The groom, a successful young lawyer, is well known here.

NEW BUSINESS BLOCK.

Addition to Corcoran's Commercial Establishments is Being Erected.

Los Angeles, Aug. 1.—Work is soon to be started on a three-story one-story brick building to be erected at the northwest corner of Seventh and Main streets, by G. F. Dean. Charles McKinnon is in charge of the building, which will contain two store-rooms, have a pressed brick front and cost between $200 and $400.

L. Karsney is to be a twelve-room, story-and-a-half rooming-house at Second and Main streets.

O. H. Cobb is minus a horse and carriage, for which he and the local officers have been searching since Saturday night. At that time Cobb hitched his horse near the Baptist Church and went to lodge. Later, when he returned, his outfit was gone. Next day a note was found saying the rig had been borrowed, but would be returned.

Rev. E. J. Harlow left today for Long Beach to attend the Christian Missionary Society gathering of California and Arizona. Local delegates include: Misses Florence and Frances Sargent, Hazel McNeil, Miss C. D. McNeil, W. L. and C. A. Peeler and E. J. Harlow, and C. E. Myers.

WISCONSIN MAN IN CHARGE.

Manual Training Department is to Be Added to the Fullerton High School.

FULLERTON, Aug. 1.—The trustees of the Union High School have decided to add a department of manual training, beginning next term, and have employed R. A. Marsden of Eugene, Wis., to take charge. It will be the present High School building this year, but it is the intention to erect a separate building in a year or two, as machinery will probably be installed after the first term. The cost of $2000 has been provided for to carry on the work for the first year. No one has been employed yet to teach the department of domestic science. That position will receive an annual salary of $1200 and the principal of domestic science will get $1045 per year.

Miss L. W. Varney is here from Hingung, China, visiting her sister, Mrs. W. M. Snow. Miss Varney has been the missionary in China for many years.

George Miles has dried eight tons of apricots on his place south of town and has been offered a cents a pound for the output.

For the week ended last night oranges were shipped from here in carload lots: Thomas Strain, Jr., 3; C. Chapman, 5; Benchley Fruit Company, 5; H. H. Dalrymple, 10; Placencia Association, 4; Citrus Union, 2.

Henry Maser shipped two carloads of potatoes to Los Angeles Monday.

The Fullerton-Placencia Walnut Association has received a carload of boxes to be used in marketing the walnut crop.

The Farmers' and Merchants' Bank will soon change to a national bank with the same paid-up capital, $25,000. It reports business good and on the increase.

THE TIMES' FIGHT.

PERTINENT CONFIRMATION.

LOS ANGELES TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION'S CIRCULAR.

Backs Up All "The Times" Has Said About the Crookedness of the Hay Gang That Started Out to "Down" This Newspaper—Enormous Expenditures Made in Vain.

A circular has been issued by the Los Angeles Typographical Union and sent out to other unions, showing what vast sums have been squandered by Arthur A. Hay and his associates who duped the members of typographical unions all over the world into sending money to the Los Angeles Typographical Union. This circular gives the figures and confirms all The Times has ever said about the folly and failure of this undertaking and the perquisites that accrued to the grafters. We quote from the circular as follows:

THE CIRCULAR.

Sister Unions, Greetings: Undoubtedly you must be interested in No. 174 [of Los Angeles], since you have heard of the Los Angeles Typographical Union. To meet that interest and support the dignity of No. 174 in the family of typographical unions of North America, this method is adopted to give some history both past and present.

The installation of the new set of officers last June changed the complexion of unionism in Los Angeles. As a member of the new majority very early expressed "this issue was between a political ring and the rank and file working members, the policy of the former being, 'a union of the workers' against the administration for the workers.'" The long duration of the former policy was made possible by the peculiar conditions prevailing in this city, it being in the main a health and pleasure resort. There are many printers here not engaged in business, but are materially interested in its welfare. But the aforementioned political ring knew how to exploit the workers. Home, the hospitals and various occupations in the city. And the membership of the Los Angeles Typographical Union, which was organized by the "organizers" against which was arrayed successfully the demand for a "union of the workers" for the workers' etc.

All this while the old minority, or "this issue," (meaning the union fight on the "Times"-Ed.) has been our bugaboo. Whenever any betterment or local work conditions was suggested, it was sought to be set aside as interfering with the "Times fight."

It should be remembered that the inordinately long hours should be reduced to something near those prevailing in other cities. When we were being openly violated in newspaper offices, and some members demanded their proper enforcement, they were cried down by agitators. It was asked, "what will this do?"—all in the interest of the "Times fight."

This policy was maintained for a long time of a triumvirate, namely, T. D. Fennessy, Arthur A. Hay and J. D. Penney. Mr. Drake was first to go, leaving for the North after the trio failed to win the printer's major campaign for the year and a half ago. Arthur Hay fled to cover under the wing of the A. F. of C. and its allies in this city. The Los Angeles Building Trades Council is threatening to relieve him of that protection; and lastly, Mr. Fennessy was expelled from all official connections, even by proxy, from 174 at the recent election.

When in the smith of its power this triumvirate dominated the situation here entirely. And what have these men accomplished? They have paid no attention to the establishment of the Los Angeles Examiner as their handwork, allowing Mr. Hearst seemingly no business account, or giving the community no credit for economic progress that permitted the addition of another paper, of which Mr. Hearst had not taken advantage, another word.

With a finer sense of humor and a closer alignment with the logic of events, the opposition could claim that these men with their methods "have enlarged the Los Angeles Times building by adding several stories thereto."

Some twelve months ago Mr. Fennessy, when on trial for unlawfully using the seal of 174, stated at the meeting of the union, that he could not have gotten the seal in any other way he would have broken into the box in which the seal was kept in order to use it.

The following table compiled from the Typographical Journal shows what money came to this city from the international fund since 1902. An itemized statement of the same would no doubt be of general interest: Journal of October, 1902—Annual report of secretary-treasurer: $25,000.00

LITTLE SUFFERER FROM ECZEMA

Grew Worse in Spite of Six Months of Ablest Treatment—Sleep Terribly Broken—Face, Head and Hands Masses of Dreadful Humor.

A SINGLE SET OF CUTICURA CURED HIM

"I feel it my duty to let you know with what success I have used the Cuticura. When our baby was seven weeks old he broke time with what we thought was a cold. He gradually grew worse. We called in a doctor. He gave him what he thought was a good dose of medicine. He said it was eczema and that we should use Cuticura. We tried everything but the right thing. Finally I got out of the Cuticura Soap. For preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair, face, neck, hands, feet, and all parts of the body. Cuticura and Cuticura Soap are priceless."
